INTRODUCTION: My name is Ronnie Christian. I am a rodeo cowboy who loves Jesus and wants to bring others to know Him. I am a Lifetime Gold Card Member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association.

VISION: Reach rodeo cowboys and cowgirls with the Good News that Jesus loves them and Jesus Saves. Through this, their families, friends, and the many people they contact around the world, including ranchers and others in the horse and livestock industry will know God cares for them and Jesus is Lord.

EXPECTATION: See people saved, set free, healed spiritually, physically, and emotionally, filled with the Holy Spirit, and living a life pleasing to God.

Why Are You In My Life?

This Month's Message by Ronnie Christian

[This is a reprint from our Christian Cowboys and Friends Newsletter in March/April 2011. It is very important to know why certain people are in our lives and what to do about it. It is essential to our well being to move away from certain relationships, and essential to our well being to cherish, respect, and honor certain relationships. Go to God for direction and understanding. He will let you know. Listen to His instruction and do not overlook it over others opinions or your own opinion. Proverbs 4:7 "Wisdom is the principal thing; Therefore get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding." Roman 8:14 "For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God."]

Throughout our lives we are constantly meeting people. Some are in our lives for a very brief time, some for a short season, others for a long season and some for the rest of our lives.

Often we do not know why they were brought into our life. Sometimes it is very evident as each of you help the other to fulfill your purpose in that season. Often we mistake why a person is in our life and we try to force a relationship to be what it was not intended to be.

Then comes confusion, hurt, heartache and/or heartbreak, bad feelings toward one another and separation. God had them in your life for a good reason but when we placed (or misplaced) them into the wrong position, trouble develops.

So it is very important to seek God and discern when we meet people (and for people we have known for a long time) why we have been brought together. We need to ask God, "Why are you (this person or this group of people) in my life?"

Stop long enough to hear His answer. It may be a process to understand why or you may immediately discern why he or she or they are in your life.

Let's take a look at male and female (boy/girl, man/woman) relationships. We have often seen two very nice people - a spirit-filled man and a spirit-filled woman meet and have a connection in the soulful realm (your soul is your mind, will, emotions). They have personalities that click together well. Spiritually they are compatible. They are even drawn to each other physically. It seems like a good match, possibly marriage.

However they are a wrong match. That is not the purpose they are in each other's lives. But they move toward an intimate relationship with thoughts of a future together as mates for life in marriage. But that is not the reason they met. They may have met to be very good friends, to work together in secular or ministry endeavors.

Rorey Maier - Growing Keeps Us Happy Growing In Christ And His Bull Riding Career

Rorey Maier is serious in his Bull Riding and in his walk with Jesus. His efforts and intentions are to grow in both. His efforts this year, at age 28, paid off. He is the PRCA Xtreme Bull Riding Tour Champion for 2106 and he qualified for his first WNFR as a bull riding contestant in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Now they are on the wrong road and have to go through the process of breaking the soul tie. Then they become to each other what they were intended for. Sometimes because of hurts and emotions this never happens. Others are able to go back to being good friends again. They are now a good brother and sister in Christ again. They are there for help, prayer, support and possibly to work together or open doors for others to be in their life. Some go their separate ways with occasional or no contact in the future.

Why didn't it work? They both loved God, they get along quite well (or maybe they didn't), they have similar interests. They are drawn to each other (at least for awhile).

The Bible says in Amos 3:3 "Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?" This means going in the same direction, at the same pace, with the same dreams and same purpose. We are a team.

If you don't get Amos 3:3 you will never get Psalm 133 where "God commanded the blessing there where they dwell together in unity."

This is one mind, one heart, one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel (Phil. 1:27). When there is no unity of pur- pose in plans, dreams, vision and direction of where and how to proceed in life together, there is a major conflict awaiting. Down deep inside, the place each wanted to be or go and the how to get there was different.

The Holy Spirit was at work all along. He was giving them a check in their spirit that this was not His plan for them, that trouble awaited, that this was not the best!! He had in mind for them.

But when emotions enter in, it is easy for us to overlook the check in your spirit, and not follow the direction and peace of God. We follow peace all right but it is our own peace, our desire and our flesh we want to please.

We wonder, "Why aren't you blessing this God?" Some reasons God would direct us on a different course is to: (1) wait for another season (if this is the one for them) (2) let them know this not the one to commit to in marriage or (3) split and go separate ways because He loves us and has a better plan and a person, even more suitable for them and their future.

Some understand that the season is over as God shows them and part in peace. Restoration of peace, relationship and friendship is always God's path when possible.

Now let's look at other types of relationships. Two people or two couples meet. They are in the same business and enjoy like interests. Their talents joined together it seems would compliment each other.

So they become business partners. But that was not why they met. They handle their business, their schedules and financial decisions so very differently, it becomes miserable to work together. They get bitter, they become distrustful. They split up. Sometimes lawsuits emerge. What happened? These were descent honest people with good talents and good products.

What happened was this. They were the wrong match. That is not why God put them in each other's lives.

Perhaps they were there to learn from each other or to teach each other. Perhaps they could have had two businesses and each would be a blessing to the other as in a contractor and sub-contractor role. They both probably had a check about entering the partnership. But on paper and in their natural senses, it looked good. So they overlooked the check in their spirit put there by the Holy Spirit. Then they proceeded down the wrong path.

We need to discern why are people in our lives. When we do this and understand the proper season it provides peace and unity and blessings. We will understand not only why people are with us now but we will understand when that season changes and the relationship is different. We won't get mad when they leave us. We will just know it's God's timing for something different.

Let's look at two rodeo cowboys. They get along great. They have the same desire to rodeo and win. But they don't travel together very well. One is desiring a closer walk with God. The other wants to party a lot. One may want to rodeo nationwide and will work toward making the National Finals Rodeo and try to win a World Championship. The other likes to stay close to home and with his family more and work another job as well as rodeo. They try to rodeo together for awhile, then in the end they get new travelling partners. Hopefully they both understand why they were in each others lives. They were there to help and encourage each other to do better. They still cheer each other on. They just don't travel together.

A pastor may have someone come to their church. They are talented to play musical instruments and have a great voice to sing. So Pastor sets them in as the worship leader. But, trouble is that is not why they are in this church. Another should be the worship leader. They struggle with the choir and the church services. The pastor should have asked God, "Why is this person in my life?" Then he would know what position to place him/her in. Everybody would have ministered together in peace.

When a pastor places someone who desires to serve elderly people in the children's nursery or someone who loves children in the nursing home ministry, it will be a short lived deal with some unhappy people in the church. We need to discern why people are in our lives and when the season is over.

When we understand when a season is changing or is over, we will not get upset when people leave us or change what they are doing.

Elisha was brought into Elijah's life to continue as a prophet of God when Elijah's time was up. See I Kings 19:19-21; II Kings 2:1- 15. Jonathan was in David's life to be a very good friend to encourage him and to protect David's life from King Saul who wanted to kill him. I Samuel 19-20; II Samuel 1.

Paul and Barnabus were in each others lives to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles. Acts 13-14.

Ask God - Why is this person in my life? Why are these people in my life? Are we to be together? What are we to do together? What is my position here? What is there position? What season are we in? Is the season changing? Is the season over? Are we to continue together? How can I bless them? How can they bless me? I ask You God, "Why are they in my life? Is it wisdom to stay together, and do things together? Are we a good match?

Matthew 7:7 "Ask and it shall be given to you..." When we understand God's purpose we won't let the wrong ones stay or the right one get away. Now Holy Spirit "I know You will lead me, guide me, tell me. Help me to shut out my voice, the devil's voice and other's voices. I must hear You alone. Romans 8:14 "Those who are being led by the Holy Spirit of God, these are the sons of God."

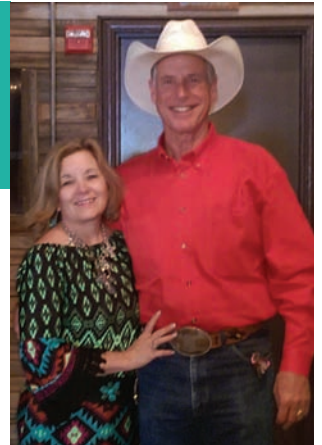

Jesus came into our lives to save us from our sins, to deliver us from hell to heaven, to connect us to the Father (John 3:16), and to give us an abundant life. (John 10:10).

Why is Jesus in your life? - to give eternal life.

Pray this. Thank you Jesus for going to the cross and dying for my sin. Thank you for washing my sins away by Your blood. I want you to be in my life now. I invite you in. I turn from sin and hell to You and to right living and to heaven. I receive you as my Savior and Lord. Holy Spirit, help me live a life pleasing to my Father in heaven. Holy Spirit, please bring the right people into my life to help me know You and serve You better. Bring people into my life that I can help come to know Jesus and fulfill their purpose. In Jesus name, Amen.

Now read Rom. 3:10, 3:23, 5:8-9, 6:23, 10:9- 10, 13, John 3:16, Acts 1:8, Acts 2:38.

Also Pray - God I pray for Divine appointments in my life and in my family's lives. Bring the right people for us to meet. And filter

Negative Or Evil Imaginations

I would like to talk about something that I think could be one of the most destructive battles that a person can face in life. I feel it is one of Satan's favorite tools. That is negative or evil imaginations in a person's mind. Imagination means: the ability of making mental images in one's mind.

According to the word of God imaginations can become a strong hold. There was a time in my life as a rodeo clown and bullfighter when I let imaginations almost destroy me. I started meditating and imagining a bull broke my back or neck and I could never walk or get out of bed the rest of my life. Imagining in my mind these thoughts started to produce a huge problem for me as a bullfighter. The spirit of fear became a strong hold in my life. A rodeo bullfighter cannot do his job if he is fearful of bulls and getting hurt.

A bullfighter's job is to get a bull's attention off of the bullrider at the buck off or dismount so the rider can escape safely. A bullfighter has to have the confidence to outwit a mad bull to save a rider and then himself. The spirit of fear will steal your confidence and destroy your life if you don't know how to fight against it.

There is only one way to overcome the spirit of fear and that is with God's word. I had only been a Christian for 4 years when I faced this battle against fear. God placed a cowboy preacher in my life named Larry Smith to help me understand the battle I was facing. The first thing that Larry did for me was to lay his hands on me and pray with me against this foul evil spirit of fear that was trying to destroy me and my rodeo career. Then he showed me in the Bible where fear comes from in II Timothy 1:7 "For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." Larry said to me if fear doesn't come from God where does it come from? I said, "The devil." Larry agreed.

In II Corinthians 10:3-5 it says, "For though we walk in the flesh we do not war after the flesh; for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of the strong holds; Casting Down imaginations and every high thing that exaltes itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." From learning and believing these scriptures I started to overcome my negative fearful imaginations.

The battle started in July of 1981 and in December of 1981 I was chosen by the top 25 bull riders in the world to be one of the bullfighters at the National Finals Rodeo as a cowboy protector or bullfighter. I give all the Glory to God and His word for freeing me from negative evil imaginations that produced the spirit of fear in me.

Here are some scriptures to read if you are battling imaginations and negative thinking: II Timothy 1:7; I Peter 5:8; John 10:10;

Proverbs 4:20-22; II Corinthians 10:3-5; Ephesians 6:10-12; Joshua 1:9; Psalms 34:4; Proverbs 3:5-6; Psalms 91:2; I John 4:4; Philippians 4:13; and Colossians 3:23.

God's word mixed with faith produces victory every time, every time.

Rorey Maier - Growing Keeps Us Happy

Growing In Christ And His Bull Riding Career

Rorey Maier is serious in his Bull Riding and in his walk with Jesus. His efforts and intentions are to grow in both. His efforts this year, at age 28, paid off. He is the PRCA Xtreme Bull Riding Tour Champion for 2106 and he qualified for his first WNFR as a bull riding contestant in Las Vegas, Nevada. He grew up in Timber Lake, South Dakota, and has been living in Brock, Texas this year after having gone to college in Texas.

Rorey comes from a rodeo family in South Dakota. His Grand Father, Bud Day, won over 40 saddles and is inducted into the Cowboy Hall of Fame in South Dakota. His brothers, Ardie and Corey, are well known bull riders also. Ardie is a former WNFR contestant. And his cousins, Marvin and Mark Garrett, are World Championship Bareback Riders. So it was pretty easy to get involved in the sport of rodeo as a young boy and ride in High School rodeos and college right on into the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association events. For Rorey it was pretty easy to get involved in the sport of rodeo as a young boy and ride in High School rodeos and college right on into the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association events.

This is absolutely his best year of competing. He finished the year off in the Xtreme Bull Riding Tour with a huge win at the big Ellensburg, Washington event with a first place win to solidify his year-end championship and his trip to the WNFR.

Rorey Maier shown here competing in good form - the form that has him qualified for his first WNFR in 2016.

Rorey is now seeking to grow in his relationship with God. He reads the Bible every day and is learning more about being a solid Christian. He grew up in a Christian home and they attended church together. However it is time as a young adult to step up and grow in Christ by his own choice. Obedience, reason, meaning, purpose, growing; these are words Rorey thinks about and uses often. He says, "God has blessed me with being able to be obedient to Him."

Isaiah 1:19-20 "If you are willing and obedient, You shall eat the good of the land; (20) But if you refuse and rebel, You shall be devoured by the sword; For the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

Rorey said that he began to see that the party lifestyle and all the sinning that goes with it "had no meaning and no good purpose." He says he tries to avoid things and people that bring him down in life and in his walk with God.

Keeping good company helps immensely. Rorey says, "It is a huge deal." Most years he travels with his brothers. This year he has traveled with Rocky McDonald. They encourage each other to live a clean lifestyle. They also encourage each other to be the best they can be when they ride bulls.

I Cor. 15:33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."

Proverbs 27:17 "As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend,"

Rorey says he protects his ears-what he listens to. Certain music he liked in the past he now realizes have negative ungodly sound and messages. So he listens to upbeat encouraging music and lyrics along with some Christian music. He says, "I have begun to guard my tongue and be careful what comes out."

Rorey Maier also states, "The last two years I have been reading my Bible and studying more." We need God to go to the next level in life." He does not like having a mediocre Christian life or a being a mediocre bull rider. He says the word of God takes him to higher levels in life. Rorey says, "Growing keeps us happy. It is not what we get that matters-it is what we become that benefits us."

Matthew 5:6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied." (filled in the NKJV)

Rorey made a decision to believe in and receive Jesus Christ at a young age. He was taught by his parents and those at the church he learned from. However that was not enough. He had to believe for himself that Jesus is the Savior he needed and wanted for life here and for eternal life with our Father in heaven. This gave him as he says, "A with life with meaning and purpose."

One of Corey's favorite Scriptures is Galatians 6:4-5 "But each one must examine his own work, and then he will have reason for boasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another. (5) For each one will bear his own load."

These verses remind him not to compare himself with others. Rorey tells us, "I can only control me and my character-not others." And Rorey does have good character and a good name among his peers.

We look forward to hearing many good reports on Rorey Maier in the future-in his bull riding and in his walk with Jesus. We believe we will. We hope to see Rorey doing what he desires-"fulfilling God's purpose for him in the earth." And we know with God's help and Rorey's obedience he will. Rorey shows us that we should use our time on earth wisely as the Holy Spirit leads us. His desire is to live a life with meaning and purpose.

We hope Rorey's future Bull Riding events are prosperous. Whatever he does in the arena in the Bull Riding event you will find him growing in Christ-loving God and loving others.

ON THE TRAIL

We stayed closer to home this summer. It was fun and we saw good fruit at the Lester Meier Pro Tour Rodeos and at the weekly rodeos at Tejas Rodeo in Bulverde, Texas.

At Lester Meier Rodeos we have Cowboy Church by the Tack trailer and Rodeo Secretary Office about 45 minutes before the rodeo. Because of the timing and the location we get a good crowd. Lester attends almost every service and encourages his helpers and the contestants to join in with us. Besides the Cowboy Church there is a lot of counsel and prayer with individuals throughout the rodeo event.

At Tejas Pastor Cody Haynes takes his bulls and holds Cowboy Church service every week one hour before the rodeo in the bleachers. When I am town he has me minister there.

Also Cody Haynes is involved in the movie and TV business. He is working on a western all summer. On a few occasions he asked me to come to the set to be a Wrangler. Sometimes I am in costume and sometimes I am taking care of the horses and being there for safety for the actors and actresses. We pray each day before filming. And God opens doors for us to quietly share our faith in Jesus and minister to the others who are involved in the production.

Beginning in September we are back on the road at the PRCA Rodeos. We went to Texarkana, Arkansas, and to Stephenville, Texas which is held very close to the cutoff date for qualifying for the WNFR. I reminded the contestants to Praise the Lord when things are bad or good. We praise God when we are doing well for our blessings; and we praise God when we are down because He will rescue us and will pluck our feet out of the net." (Psalm 25:13)

While out on the road we stayed with Bill and Karen Shaw of Christian Cowboys Who Care Ministries in Douglass, TX near Nacogdoches. They started a new church there earlier this year which meets on Sunday mornings at their house. They rented a tent, and have plans for a building soon. Also they host "Getting It Right," this is a Cowboy Church/Bible Study/Bull riding practice session. They meet at 6:30 PM on the first and third Tuesday of the month. Over 50 have received Jesus as Savior and Lord at his these events in the last few months. They have a nice new arena and some super practice bulls to help the kids learn to ride. The arena was built by faith. The funds came in when needed and they have a very nice facility. They also serve dinner and refreshments. The night I ministered in September about 5 people received Jesus and confessed Jesus as Lord before the people there. Others were encouraged in their walk with God.

It has been good to see the cowboys and cowgirls at the PRCA rodeos again this fall. Jesus said to go and make disciples. The cowboys we talk with are hungry for the Word if God. They have a lot of questions. We see them growing in Christ. And we continue to see Jesus heal broken and bruised bodies, along with broken dreams and hearts. I spoke to the pain in a bull rider's elbow at the Texarkana, Texas rodeo and he reported to me a week later that the pain was all gone. It no longer bothered him when he rode bulls. We encourage them to stick with God's plans that He lines out for us in the His Word, the Bible. We encouraged a young couple to have a relationship pleasing to God. Get married if you are to live together. Honor

God and honor each other. They were very receptive and open to what the Word has to say about man/woman relationships. When we speak the truth in love people listen and receive it.

I am writing this the last week of September. The WNFR in Las Vegas, NV the first part of December and the Christmas season is upon us - even by the time many of you will read this. We speak the love and peace of God over all of our Cowboy Partners and all of the readers. We should be at the WNFR to Present Jesus at the rodeo, the trade shows, the casinos and other places. It is an exciting time in the kingdom of God. Keep your heart right with God. Psalm 52:10 says, "Create in me a clean heart O God..." Only the Blood of Jesus can cleanse our sins. Thank You Father for sending Jesus to us to be our Savior and our Best Friend.

The Presidential elections in the USA will be over by the time many of you see this report. No matter the outcome, continue to pray for the USA. The President and other leaders need to hear from the Holy Spirit and do as He says to do for us to be the blessed people He desires us to be. And we the people need to set our eyes on Jesus and our hearts on the Father, and His will for us to experience His love and protection and His best for this nation. Happy New Year to you all. Keep putting God first and trust Him in everything.

We invite any of you to become a Cowboy Partner in what we do in kingdom work. Our Cowboy Partners have a part in every soul we reach for Jesus. We speak blessings on you all-In Jesus name. Amen.

We continue on the Trail for Jesus.

Ronnie Christian
